

New and Now

The World's Best Hotel Openings in 2021: 150 to Look Forward To!

by Team Fathom

Well. Looks like someone has taken advantage of the pandemic to develop hotel projects for the future. Or, more accurately, lots of someones, by the look of our new hotels 2021 global forecast, which includes 150 hotels, 27 independent standouts among them. Some projects are delayed 2020 openings; all are interesting in their own ways. If all signs point to travel coming back with a vengeance once Covid vaccines have been widely distributed and life returns to (a new) normal, then when we're ready to go, these hotels and their teams will be more than ready to welcome us.

Bethlen Estates

Transylvania, Romania

If you're feeling self-inflicted pressure to take your first post-pandemic trip to a dramatic and remote location that none of your friends will have visited, three newly restored country houses in a Carpathian Mountains wilderness should fit the bill nicely. (Spring)